Overdraft Fees and Services
Overdraft Fee	$36 – For each item that we pay (maximum 3 Overdraft fees per day) that overdraws your account per business day. If your account is overdrawn, you will not be charged if your ending account balance is overdrawn by $50 or less.
Account Balance	We use the “available balance” method to determine whether your account is overdrawn. If your account is overdrawn, there is not enough money in your account to pay for a transaction. Your “available” balance may not be the same as your account’s “actual” balance, which means that an overdraft could occur despite your account’s actual balance. Your account’s actual balance (sometimes referred to as the ledger balance) only includes transactions (deposits and payments) that have settled up (or posted to your account) to that point in time. The actual balance does not include outstanding transactions (such as checks that have not yet cleared and electronic transactions that have been authorized but which are still pending because they have not yet been presented for payment). The balance on your periodic statement is the ledger balance for your account as of the statement date. As the names implies, your available balance is calculated based on the money “available” in your account to make payments. That is, the available balance takes transactions that have been authorized, but not yet settled (or been presented for final payment), and subtracts them from the actual balance. In addition, when calculating your available balance, any “holds” placed on deposits that have not yet cleared are also subtracted from the actual balance. For more information on how holds placed on funds in your account can impact your available balance, please refer to the “Terms and Conditions of Your Account” Agreement.
Debit/ATM Overdraft Coverage	In order for United to authorize payment of ATM and one-time debit card transactions that would overdraw your account, you must affirmatively authorize us to do so. Under certain limited circumstances, we reserve the right to authorize an ATM or one-time debit card transaction even if you have not authorized us to do so. Such circumstance could arise if your account had sufficient funds at the time we receive preliminary authorization for payment and reduced prior to the receipt of final authorization. If that occurs, the debit card transaction will overdraw your account because we must honor our promise to pay the merchant. You may incur an overdraft fee when this happens. Please refer to the “Terms and Conditions of Your Account” Agreement for additional details.
Overdraft Protection	United Courtesy Overdraft Protection: You will be assessed the normal overdraft fees if United elects to pay any item that would result in an overdraft. Please refer to the “Terms and Conditions of your Account” Agreement for additional details. This service may be withdrawn by the Bank at any time. To avoid overdraft fees, you may link your checking account with another United deposit product. This service will automatically transfer funds from your other United deposit account on the day an overdraft occurs. You must enroll for this service and there must be sufficient funds in the second account in order for the transfer to occur.
Overdraft Protection Transfer Fee	$11 – For each account-to-account transfer between checking and savings.

Dispute Resolution
Binding Arbitration	In the event a dispute between you and United cannot be resolved after attempting to do so informally, those disputes will be resolved through binding arbitration or small claims court. You and United waive the right to a trial by jury or to participate in a class action suit. For more information, refer to the “Resolution of Disputes Between You and United” section of the “Terms and Conditions of Your Account” Agreement.

Processing Policies
Posting Order – The order in which withdrawals and deposits are processed.	Our policy is to generally post checks, recurring and one-time debit card transactions, automated clearing house (ACH) transactions, automated teller machine (ATM) transactions, “bill pay” transactions, and other items to your account at the end of each business day following the posting of deposits that were received on the same business day. The order in which we post will depend on several factors including processing items based on their inclusion within various categories and the established payment rules applicable to each of these categories. We reserve the right to choose the order in which the items are posted and the right to change any of the factors at any time without notice. Transactions may not post on the day that you use your ATM /United Debit Card. Until the items receive final posting, you may not have access to the funds and overdrafts can occur. For more information, refer to the “Posting Order” section of the “Terms and Conditions of Your Account” Agreement.
Deposit Hold Policy – When funds deposited to your account are available.	Cash deposit with teller or at ATM – Same business day Direct Deposit/Wire Transfer – Same business day Check Deposit with Teller or at ATM – Usually the next business day, but sometimes longer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Unless we place a longer hold on your account, the first $225 will be available by the next business day. The full amount may be held for some exception holds we may place.</li> <li>• The date the funds will be available will be provided on the notice.</li> <li>• In some situations, we may notify you after your deposit is made that your funds will not be available for up to 7 business days.</li> </ul> A “business day” is Monday through Friday, except for legal federal holidays, up to the close of business for the location receiving the deposit. For more information, refer to the “Your Ability to Withdraw Funds” section of the “Terms and Conditions of Your Account” Agreement.
