

O.J. Stout Scholarship Fund

Application for Financial Assistance for 2019-2020 School Year

Deadline: March 31, 2019

The 2019-2020 Scholarship Application must be completed and postmarked with the following attachments by March 31, 2019 in order to be considered for the upcoming school year. If you do not have all the requirements attached, your application will not be reviewed. No courtesy calls will be made in the instance of incomplete applications. Please complete all fields on this application, even if you are reapplying for the scholarship. Please feel free to send your application by certified mail to confirm it is received by the due date, or you may call to confirm. If you drop your application off in person you may ask for a receipt.

Your application must include:

- Page 1 of your parents 1040 for the 2018 tax year
This must be from the parent(s) who claimed the student. If parents do not file a 1040, a copy of the summary page from the student's completed FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid Form) must be attached. This form must include income information.
- A copy of your fall/winter 2018 grades
We do not require an official transcript, but it is imperative that your full name and your cumulative G.P.A. are included on the grade report submitted. A separate copy of your grades is required for this application. If you have submitted your grades for another purpose do not assume they will be included for this application.
- Three (3) reference letters
These may be mailed separately to the Trust Department, as long as they are received by March 31st. This is not required if you are a current recipient of the O.J. Stout Scholarship.

Please submit to:

United Bank
Attn: Scholarships
514 Market Street
Parkersburg, WV 26101

Or email to:

Criteria | O.J. Stout Scholarship Fund

Under the provisions of this trust, the following criteria has been established.

1. Applicants must be young men residing in Wood County or in adjacent West Virginia counties. Preference shall be given to students residing in Wood County.
2. Recipients must be selected primarily on the basis of need, but academic ability and potential should also be considered.
3. Preference should be given to students who are studying to become ministers at West Virginia Wesleyan College, Buckhannon, West Virginia.
4. All recipients must be graduates of an accredited high school or have exhibited an ability, desire and willingness to pursue their education for a professional or business career.
5. All recipients must maintain at least a 2.0 or "C" grade point average in order to be eligible for loan or scholarship. Also, the recipient must maintain full-time status per semester at the institution they attend. If either of these are not met the recipient will be required to return funds for the semester he does not qualify.
6. The recipient will be responsible for providing the trustee with a copy of his grade report (including the student's full name and cumulative G.P.A.) after the completion of each semester. In addition, it is the duty of the recipient to advise the trustee of any changes he makes in his course of study or the University or College he is attending.
7. No award shall be automatically renewed. Each grant and/or loan will be made on an annual basis provided that the recipient meets the criteria and provides a complete application no later than March 31st each year.
8. Awards may be made to sophomores, juniors and seniors in college as well as to freshmen, even though they have not previously been recipients of grants and loans. Graduate students may be considered as well as undergraduate students as long as they meet the other requirements necessary to obtain a grant and/or loan.
9. All loan recipients shall sign a negotiable promissory note for an amount approved by the trustee. All promissory notes will bear interest at the rate of (3) three percent per annum commencing (5) five years after the recipient has discontinued his schooling. Terms for repayment of the loan will be outlined in the promissory note.

10. The committee established by the Trust shall meet and determine the recipients of the awards to the extent possible prior to awards day at area high schools so that grants and/or loans can be presented on those occasions if at all possible.
11. It should be emphasized that this fund is designed to assist worthy students and not to pay the full cost and expenses of their education.
12. Recipients of awards shall receive one-half (1/2) of the total amount awarded at the beginning of the fall semester and one-half (1/2) of the award at the beginning of the spring semester, assuming that the grade point average and other criteria have been met during the first semester.
13. It will be the responsibility of the recipient to keep his address and educational status current with the United Bank Trust Department as administrator of the scholarship. This responsibility continues until his note is paid in full.
